

Ione DeHaan

Family History

Did you spend the night at your Grandma and Grandpa's house?

Shannon Lee 3 $\frac{1}{2}$

Yes, I did spend some nights at my grandma Kellenberger's and if some of my cousins were also there we tho't that was great.

What is your fondest memory of Grandpa/Grandma?

Kristyn Berghoefer, 21

I never knew my grandpa Kellenberger, he died before I was born. Grandpa and Grandma Moser lived in Kansas but we went there every year just before the summer ended and that was fun. We had a lot of cousins there and at Christmas we always rec'd a big box of Christmas gifts from Grandpa and Grandma Moser. That was very exciting.

What did your grandparents do?

(for a living)

Marc Goodman, 16

All of my grandparents were farmers. Some years were good and some not so good.

What is the best lesson you learned from your parents? What values that your parents taught you did you pass (or try to)on to your children?

Stacey Wagoner, 21

We all learned how to work, in both inside and outside. We were taught to be honest and do the chores, when our brothers got big enough to help outside my sister Marianne and I helped our Mother more in the house. We always had a new baby to care for.

When were you born? Where were you born?

Daniel Welch, 9

I was born on May 14th, 1919 near Lester, Iowa. When I was two years old my folks moved so I don't remember anything about that.

Were you named after anyone in particular? What is the story behind how you were named?

Ty Lee, 34

I was not named after anyone but my Mother read about a girl that was named Ione and she like that name so when I was born my folks gave me that name. My middle name is Luella.

Did you get along with your siblings?

(Explain)

Angie Nyce, 27

For the most part we got along with our siblings, of course there were days when that wasn't so, especially when the boys came in the house with dirty shoes and we just mopped the floor. ☹

Did you have family activities you did together? (explain)

Angie Nyce, 27

Yes, we didn't have fancy toys but we did enjoy going on fishing trips. We did have a goat that my brothers hitched on to the coaster but you had to watch him, if you turned you back on him he would get even.

Childhood Years

Did you have a big backyard when you were little?

Michael Daus, 6

We had a big backyard; we had a swing and lots of trees.

Did you have crayons?

Gage Gesiriech, 7

We had crayons but they weren't as good as the crayons of today. We also had a backboard and chalk, some white and some colored but that was mostly a winter pastime.

Did you have your own room when you were little?

Jocelyn Reist, 5

No, no, no, nobody had their own room in our house; there was always two to a bed.

Did you ever jump on your bed when you were little?

Michael E[stein], 6

No, I don't remember jumping on the beds but I know some of the kids did that.

What was your favorite meal?

Who fixed that meal?

Sarah Joy Staude, 19

When Marianne and I got old enough to cook we took turns cooking. Can't say I really had a favorite meal unless it was a Holiday.

Did you eat carrots when you were 7 years old?

Kelsey Case, 6

You bet, we ate all vegetables, even if we didn't like everything.

Did you have popsicles when you were little?

Taylor Snell, 5

No popsicles for the Moser Kids when we were little.

Did you ever go out to dinner or did you eat at home?

Elizabeth Leruth, 11

We always at tat home and we never went hungry, we didn't always have dessert but nobody cared.

What did you look like when you were little?

Alexandra McNay, 7

When I was little I had blonde hair (now it's white) Blue eyes, was a little chubby and I didn't like it when my sister got taller than I was, and she still is but now I don't care anymore.

Did you every play card games?

(Which ones?)

Michel Epstein, 6

Yes, and it did get noisy.

What was your favorite game?

Allison Steven, 8

We made housekeeping rooms in the grove, we'd sweep the ground and make pretend rooms. Anti over, picking flowers on the roadside, writing to our grandparents in Kansas were also things we did.

Did you play any sports? (Tell me about them.)

Brett Middlekauff, 9

No.

What kind of kid were you? Did you stay inside or play and build forts and things?

Josh Heissman, 18

I was a kid that preferred to stay inside and read books. (If there was time)

Were you happy as a kid?

Jessica Woodward, 11½

Yes, I think I was, I loved my family.

What was the greatest hardship you endured as a child?

Bob Corwin, 34

The greatest hardship that we had was when my brother Johnnie died and also my little brother who drowned in a water tank, he fell in. Johnnie died from a ruptured appendix. Also we got word that our bother Harry was killed in the War. World War II

What kind of pets did you have when you were younger?

Brian Walen, 11

We always had a dog and pet lambs and cat.